From the Pastors

The Rev. Dr. David Holyan, Pastor
World Communion Sunday:
The Scoundrel's Banquet
On Sept. 15th I preached on Luke 15 and the grumbling of the Pharisees and scribes over the actions of Jesus: This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.

This coming Sunday, October 6th, we will meet at 10am in the Sanctuary to celebrate World Communion Sunday. During this service we recognize our connection to the global family of Christians by celebrating the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Sacraments, of which we have only two, baptism and the Lord's Supper, can take on an air of dignified refinement where we have to dress up and be on our best behavior. There can also be a sense of gravitas as we affirm the work of the Holy Spirit is these unique and special ways. And we can forget that Jesus got in trouble for eating with tax collectors and sinners rather than eating with the Pharisees and the scribes. Jesus ate with the people who knew they weren't good enough for the religious elite. Jesus ate with the people who knew they didn't deserve God's special attention. Jesus ate with the scoundrels (in the eyes of the powerful elite) because God's blessing is for all people, equally, without favor. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper needs to be understood not only through the story of Jesus eating with the eleven in the upper room, but also the story of the woman begging for the crumbs, the story of the breakfast of fish in the last chapter of the Gospel of John, and the story of Jesus eating with tax collectors and sinners. All those who ate with Jesus were blessed in his presence. This is what we celebrate on World Communion Sunday. We join with all the other undeserving scoundrels around the world, the tax collectors and sinners saved by grace, and remember that we are one because Jesus took the bread, blessed it and broke it, and gives it to us and says: take and eat, this is my body broken for you. He takes the cup, gives thanks to God, and says: this cup is a new covenant, my blood shed for you for the forgiveness of your sins, take and drink. On World Communion Sunday, we join with Christians around the world and receive again the blessed welcome and presence of Jesus the Christ so that we will remember: this fellow welcomes all of us and eats with us.

Peace,

David.

The Rev. Dr. Karen Blanchard, Associate Pastor
I can hardly believe that the end of summer is here, but school is in full swing, fall programs for education, music and youth events are underway. In addition, we continue various mission projects—from Bridge Bread, to work camps, Kwasha kids and on-going nutrition support through KirkCare.

We are adding an additional component to our congregation’s outreach this year. The Session voted to join in partnership with two local ecumenical groups. One is a national group called Shepherd Center. This center for seniors provides opportunities for learning, exercise classes, volunteering and rides to the doctor for those no longer driving. Located in the Webster Hills Methodist Church activities building, Shepherd Center provides resources and fellowship events as offsite events for those interested in field trips. Look for information on the various programs through the newsletter, bulletin, postings and pamphlets to share if you know someone who would find this organization a good way to connect. At present, 15 churches support this group and we are now a part of that community connection.

In addition, we have joined the Interfaith Partnership. Their website states their purpose is to “deepen understanding, respect and appreciation among all persons across lines of religious differences” and “a leading, trusted source of all things interfaith in the St. Louis area.” The organization “resources and promotes St. Louis’ interfaith programs that move us toward greater understanding and peace through interfaith dialogue groups, gatherings and fellowship opportunities, topical presentations and discussions.” They are part of the yearly Festival of Nations event and promote an annual Thanksgiving gathering. The Partnership includes 26 religious organizations in the area and is housed on the campus of the Ladue Chapel Presbyterian Church.

The motto of the Partnership is: “As communities of faith, we agree to differ, promise to love, and unite to serve.” It seems a fitting motto for these days, a time when connecting with and listening to one another can help us to grow and learn as individuals and as a community. I hope you will take advantage of these new groups for connecting, learning and community building.

“Let all things now living, sing a song of Thanksgiving,”

With a grateful heart,
Karen
A MONTH OF SUNDAYS

Sermon: “You Give Them Something to Eat” - The Rev. Dr. David Holyan
On this World Communion Sunday we turn our attention to two passages about eating: Romans 14:13-23 and Luke 9:10-17. In the ancient near East of Jesus' time up to today, eating is a holy and sacred event. Who is welcomed to your table and how you treat them says everything about what kind of person you are. On this Sunday we will consider how table fellowship embodies the goodness and grace of God.

Sermon: “Thank You, Lord” - The Rev. Dr. Craig Howard
We welcome Rev. Dr. Craig Howard, Presbytery Leader of Giddings-Lovejoy Presbytery, whose sermon will be about the relationships of thanksgiving to testimony, testimony to worship, and worship to stewardship.

Sermon: “In All Times and In All Places” - The Rev. Dr. Karen Blanchard
Paul understands that life can be challenging. In these words to Timothy the message is one of encouragement and wisdom about living a life in faith. Paul is encouraging him to stand strong, to be consistent in living out and sharing the good news whether in good times or bad reminding him of the power of faith to guide us and support us through the challenges and joys of life.

Sermon: “Have Mercy On Me” - The Rev. Dr. David Holyan
Many people feel they need to “clean up” before they come to church. Other people come to church because it is the proper thing to do for a good citizen who follows all the rules. Faith is not a show for others to see. Our invitation is to be authentically humble before God, realizing that without God’s mercy and grace we are nothing.

From the Director of Music Ministries
As you are likely aware, our Con Spirito Concert Series is celebrating its 20th season this year. In honor of this milestone, we invite you to a special concert on Sunday, October 20th at 3:00 pm. We are sponsoring a Hymn Festival titled: Let All the Earth Rejoice.

What exactly is a hymn festival? We gather to sing the great hymns of our faith, coming together as one community through the gift of congregational song. Hymns are statements of our faith, and I promise you will be inspired by this incredible event, which will be led by Aaron David Miller, organist and choirmaster from St. Paul, MN. Our Chancel Choir will be joined by singers from neighboring Presbyterian churches, the Clarion Brass, and a hand bell ensemble. We will come together to make a joyful noise to the Lord!

As with most of our Con Spirito concerts, this event is free and open to the public. Make your plans now to be here, bring family and friends, and take part in this blessed event.

Faithfully yours,
Bill

CHRISTIAN CONCERNS LECTURE SERIES-9:00A.M. in Room 009

October 6-27: Rubén Rosario Rodríguez, Professor of Theological Studies and Director of the Mev Puleo Program in Latin American Politics, Theology, and Culture at SLU, will speak on “Religion and Science: Human Uniqueness Reconsidered.” Science and religion are sometimes seen as competing (and contradictory) worldviews. Some traditional Christian doctrines seem to be in conflict with evolutionary perspectives. Is it possible to reconcile our evolutionary descent with the Christian belief in human uniqueness?

Raising the Challenging/Challenged Child

The group will be an opportunity to pool resources and information along with sharing experiences in this faith based, non-judgmental support group. Contact Mike Lages at malages08@gmail.com.

October 23-November 13
Join Dr. Holyan at 9:00a.m. on Wednesdays from October 23 through November 13 for a discussion of the book, On the Brink of Everything: Grace, Gravity & Getting Old, by Parker Palmer. Palmer is a favorite author whose books A Hidden Wholeness and Let Your Life Speak (as well as others) are filled with wisdom and real-world faith. The main message of this latest book is that aging is a time to dive deeper into life, as there is less to worry over and lose. This book group will provide a safe and supportive place to consider the 'blessings' of growing older. The book will be available in the office for $14 by October 9th.

FOURTH WEDNESDAY BOOK GROUPS, 1:30p.m., Room 030
We will meet on October 23 to discuss comedian Trevor Noah’s book, Born a Crime, his reflections of being a child of mixed race growing up in South Africa. Books for the coming months can be found on a bookmark at the Welcome Center (NOTE: There is no September meeting).

PEACE & GLOBAL WITNESS OFFERING
In 1980 the Presbyterian Church made a Commitment to Peacemaking. At that time our church was encouraged to put aside anxiety and fear and embrace our mission to spread God's word of reconciliation to those around the corner and around the world. In these times especially, with so many divisions and so much discord swirling around us, we remember St. Paul who wrote to the Thessalonians that we hold steadfast to a God who can bring peace to our world at all times and in all ways. On World Communion Sunday, October 6, we will receive the Peace & Global Witness Offering to support the church's commitment to Peacemaking through its many world-wide agencies. Please give generously to support this urgent cause. You may give by placing your gift in the offering plate or by mail to the church, earmarked for “Peacemaking Offering”. Special envelopes are also in the pews. Thank you.
