The Rev. Dr. Karen Blanchard,
Associate Pastor

Our trip through parts of the Northwest and British Columbia centered around water. We walked to the waterfronts of Seattle and Victoria. We saw beautiful views of bays and harbors, oceans and islands. We drove along the water, took ferries across the water and rode over bridges and stopped at an amazing waterfall on the way up to Whistler where our hotel room gave us a view of a small lake and the hills beyond. It is a beautiful part of the world.

I must admit it was a contrast to listening to what was going on in Florida and the paradox of wind and water causing chaos and destruction as Hurricane Michael made its way to Florida, Georgia and up the coast. I was aware that it was a time of push and pull of the awareness of both the beauty and the fury of nature.

Indeed it has been an intense time in our country and the world around us. I was reminded once again that life often moves swiftly from chaos to calm and back. I found myself grateful to be in a place of such beauty—of mountains and pines, of fall colors and amazing sunsets and clouds. I realized how important it is to spend time resting and being renewed, to fully immerse oneself in the beauty of God's creation.

We are entering into the wild and wooly season of Thanksgiving, Christmas and Epiphany. It will take a great deal of energy and focus. But in the midst of it all, I give thanks for times of rest and renewal in order to face the tasks ahead both with hope and peace—as together we seek to bring and bear words of hope and peace into the world.

Shalom,
Karen

The Rev. Dr. David Holyan, Pastor

Back to the Desert

Just above the credenza to my left is a picture entitled “Painted Canyons at Ghost Ranch”. I love this picture as it reminds me each day I come into my study of a place of soul-solace for me: Ghost Ranch (the Presbyterian camp in NW New Mexico). I will be visiting the ranch again this month as I begin a two-year continuing education program in the art of spiritual direction. Gathering for one week in the desert four times in two years with a small group of fellow spiritual directors-in-training will feed me in ways that elicit a 'thank you' from deep within.

Listening for the hum of the Spirit in the midst of all the noise in life is not easy to do in today's world. There are so many distractions, so many people 'yelling' on television, so many unwanted emails and marketing calls to my cellphone that I sometimes want to run away to a quiet place and hide. It is difficult to attend to the Spirit when our lives are filled with too much noise.

During the recently concluded Wednesday morning book group, I learned about the benefits of building a 'barrier of simplicity'. Robert Wicks, in Riding the Dragon, invited me to think about ways I could simplify my life in order to be more attentive to the deeper ebbs and flows of the Spirit in others, myself, and creation. This led to me re-applying to the spiritual director training program where the focus of our learning will be on discerning the Spirit's presence.

My hope is that my time in the desert will feed not only my soul but my presence and work among you. I hope to cultivate a deeper awareness of God's goodness, mystery, and grace that will inform my preaching and leadership, teaching and pastoral care. I look forward to sharing what I learn from my trips back to the desert.

Peace,
David.
A MONTH OF SUNDAYS

November 4, 2018
Sermon: “For All the Saints” - The Rev. Dr. David Holyan
Scriptures: Psalm 24 and Revelation 21:1-6a

All Saints’ Day is a sacred, special Sunday in the life of the church. We honor those who have passed away in the last year. We recognize the gifts they have shared and the loss they leave behind. We are grateful to God for all the goodness they blessed us with. As we consider John’s Revelation and Psalm 24, we do so through the lens of the Great Cloud of Witnesses who have lived the life of faith before us.

November 11, 2018
Sermon: “The Balancing Act” - The Rev. Dr. Karen Blanchard
Scriptures: Mark 12:28-34 and Ruth 1:1-18

This morning's readings are familiar—the passage from the Book of Ruth wherein Ruth commits to going forth to another land with Naomi out of love and commitment and the gospel reading about the law that is above all others—to love and serve God and to treat and love one's neighbor as one wants to be loved and treated. Connection, community, commitment and compassion—elements of our faith are touched on in these readings. We are reminded that faith is not just an individual matter, it is about community. How do we live out these issues in a culture that tends to put more emphasis on the individual over the community?

November 18, 2018
Sermon: “Holding Fast To Hope” - The Rev. Dr. David Holyan

The message of this passage from Hebrews could be summed up as, “trust, trust, trust.” So much richness is compressed into these powerful verses. We need not fear God. We have access to the Holy. We are clean. We can trust the promises. We can love our neighbors. We will consider all the richness of this passage and how it invites us to live our faith with more confidence and boldness.

November 25, 2018
Sermon: “Listening to Truth” - The Rev. Dr. David Holyan
Scriptures: Revelation 1:4b-8 and John 18:33-37

Pilate asks Jesus, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus responses, in part, by saying, “My kingdom is not from this world.” On this Christ the King Sunday we will explore what this ancient notion of king/dom means for us in 2018 and what it means that our ‘king’ lets himself be arrested, tortured, and crucified. Jesus is testifying to a peculiar truth, the truth that sets us free and calls us to love everyone.

From the Director of Music Ministries

October opened with World Communion Sunday and ended with Reformation Sunday. November has two special bookends as well: All Saints’ Sunday and Christ the King Sunday.

The first Sunday of November is the day we remember and name the members of our congregation, as well as immediate family of church members, who have died in the last year. It is a very special day in worship, and a sacred time when we name our loved ones aloud. The promise of new life is essential to our faith, and we celebrate that on November 4th. We end the month with Christ the King Sunday, the final Sunday of the church year. We conclude the current liturgical season and begin December with Advent – four weeks of prayer and preparation for Christmas.

For all the saints who from their labor rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed, thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest. Alleluia!

Faithfully yours,
Bill

Children, Youth and Family Ministry

A Time to Give Thanks
This month is always a time of reflection and future planning in the Children, Family and Youth Ministry office. When I look back at what we have done this year I am thankful over and over again for those that have planned activities and for those that have put them on. I would encourage you to take time the whole month, not just on Thanksgiving Day, to reflect with others on things that you are thankful for - give thanks with each other and for each other!

Giving Trees are Coming!
We are proud to be partnering with Lydia’s House for our annual Giving Tree Gift Drive this year. We expect to have ornaments on trees on Sunday, November 18th and need gifts to be back under the trees by Sunday, December 9th.

Lydia’s House is the only transitional housing program in Eastern Missouri that is specifically for battered and abused women and their children that offers immediate community. They have 36 confidentially located, fully furnished apartments where our families can find refuge, safety and support. Each family gets an advocate to help them regain control of their lives while building resources necessary for not only surviving, but thriving, in the wake of violence.

Rise Against Hunger
Be sure to be at church on Sunday, November 4th during the 10:00 hour to help the Mission Committee and others pack more than 10,000 meals for Rise Against Hunger. Our Sunday School classes will be assisting and we encourage everyone to make this a family activity!

Family Events in Early 2019
It’s hard to believe that 2019 is so close, but it IS!
January 6th - Movie Night!
Join us for a night of pizza, popcorn and a family-friendly movie! Wear your PJ’s and bring a blanket to Fellowship Hall from 5:15-7:00. Bring $5 per family to cover our pizza costs, please.
February 10 - Game DAY!
Join us for snow-cones, snacks and games galore! We will have out 9 Square, Gaga Ball and a lot of table games - and we hope you will bring your favorite game(s) too! We are going for this one early - 3:00-5:00! There is no cost for this event.

Children’s Sunday School
The Sunday school learning continues during the month of November by showing our grace by helping others. Students are invited to help make rice packets for Rise Against Hunger during the Sunday school hour on Nov. 4th. We’ll also be making our annual giving tree ornaments to help support less fortunate families in our community during this month.

Sunday School meets weekly at 10:00 and is open to children ages 3 years old through seventh grade.

LOGOS Updates
One of the best nights of the LOGOS year is coming up in the middle of the month - Thank a Special Person Night! Our students each get to invite an adult that has helped them - a teacher, parent, coach - to a full Thanksgiving Dinner provided by our wonderful cooking crew! We love this night because our students are able to show off their Special Person to their LOGOS friends!

November Themes:
11/7: Halloween: Costumes are a week old, but we get fresh jokes!
11/14: Thank a Special Person Night: Students get to appreciate adults at LOGOS
11/24: NO LOGOS
11/28: Magic Night: We are bringing in a real magician!

Youth Ministry
Senior High Fellowship
Our Senior High youth meet weekly on Sunday evenings from 7:00-8:30 p.m. We have a lot of fun most weeks and try to sneak a little learning in, too! We will be strolling from house to house this month when we have our Progressive Dinner - what fun!

Confirmation
Our Confirmation Class began meeting in September but it is still early enough for your eighth grader to join in if they have not yet! We have already learned about Symbols of the Church, History of our faith, our denomination and our Church and much more. November leads us into learning about The Bible and Mission work of the church!

Rob Monroe - Director of Children, Youth and Family Ministries - rmonroe@kirkwoodpres.org
November 4 and 11
Tobias Winright will speak about creation as spoken of in the Bible in relationship to the issues of climate change. Professor Winright holds the Hubert Mäder Endowed Chair in the Albert Gnaegi Center for Health Care Ethics and is Associate Professor of Theological Ethics in the Department of Theological Studies both at Saint Louis University.

November 18
Books hold wisdom and the history of various cultures. Patrick Cuba will discuss the urgent effort to preserve knowledge and cultural history in the hidden libraries and homes of threatened cultures. Mr. Cuba is the lead software developer at the Walter J. Ong S.J. Center for Digital Humanities at St. Louis University, and has worked with the Hill Monastic Museum and Library. They have rescued over 200,000 manuscripts from places of war and disasters or destruction by groups like ISIS and the Taliban.

November 25: The Rev. Dr. Alan Meyers will speak on the three uses of the Law in Reformed Tradition as developed by John Calvin. He will touch on the theology and history that shaped and continues to shape our denomination. Dr. Meyers is Professor Emeritus of Religion at Lindenwood University and a member of our Presbytery.

NO CLASS November 4: Join us for the Rise Against Hunger Meal Packing Event. See article on page 6.
November 11 and 18: Attorney James Hacking will discuss topics surrounding immigration in the U.S. today. He received both his undergraduate and law degrees from Saint Louis University. Since 2007 his practice has been devoted almost exclusively to immigration law handling spouse & employment visas, citizenship, asylum and deportation cases. He was a founding member of the St. Louis Chapter of the Council on American-Islamic Relations and has served on the U.S. Attorney’s Hate Crimes Task Force.

November 25: Thanksgiving weekend—no classes this weekend

As young Americans opt out of Christianity and the church, they list attitudes and behaviors of Christians as concerns. Let’s work together to build ourselves into people who are good examples of being Christ in our world, rather than as judgmental people others want to avoid. Drop off your children in Sunday School, and join us as we follow Adam Hamilton’s, “When Christians Get it Wrong”, discussion guide. No need to buy the book or do any reading outside class. Questions? Contact Sarahlynn Lester at 314-495-4730 or Sarahlynn@LesterBoal.net. On January 6 and 13, Faith & Family will meet in the Fireplace Room (030) to participate in a series of interest to parents of children and youth.

The Spiritual Formation series will focus on deepening the stillness of the heart through prayer, meditation, study and reflection. Tom Edelstein is the convener of the group which will meet the second Sunday of the month at 9:30a.m. in room 028. If you have any questions please contact Tom at tedelstein@att.net or Karen Blanchard at kblanchard@kirkwoodpres.org.

The newly formed Esther Circle is collecting bras, underwear and socks for residents at the All Among Us Women’s Center in Ferguson. If you would like to contribute to this effort, there is a box in the hallway near the Welcome Center. Simply purchase your items, bring them to church and put them in the box provided. Sports bras are recommended as they fit more people. All sizes are needed. Thank you for your generosity.
BOOK GROUPS

TUESDAY MORNINGS, 9:00AM, Room 030

Join us each session for discussions and reflection. If you have questions contact Karen at kblanchard@kirkwoodpres.org
