The Rev. Dr. Karen Blanchard,
Associate Pastor

Snow is like water, it has the power to wreak havoc and the ability to paint the world with beauty that can take our breath away. We also know that predicting the weather can be like herding cats—frustrating and hard to get a hold of. The snow we had last week was more than we'd had in quite some time and for some of us it was a matter of picking up on essentials and for others the drive home during rush hour was slow going and more than frustrating. The next day though, for most of us, the world stood still and we appreciated its beauty.

Beauty and chaos. It can be a fine line between one and the other including the impact of the arrival of the snow. For those of us who had what we needed in food and power, we could enjoy its beauty—the bark and branches of trees outlined in white, and appreciate the light that the snow brings to the world on gray and cloudy days. We could see signs of nature with the footprints of squirrels, the tiny marks of birds and mounds of snow where pine boughs could no longer hold its weight and fell to the ground. I often think of a snow day as a gift. A gift of time to appreciate the creation. To take a moment to be still. In some ways snow is the great equalizer challenging all of us with its beauty and chaos.

As I looked out into our backyard on Saturday, I was reminded of a holiday card we received with the words of Kahlil Gilbran, a well known writer of wisdom. The words were, “Kindness is like snow. It beautifies everything it covers.” I found Gilbran's words to be wise in two ways-- not only in acknowledging the beauty of the snow, but also the beauty of kindness. Last week the Deacons received a request from a social worker at one of our elementary schools. The request was to help pay for medications for a child whose mother lost her job when her company closed last month. All the employees lost their health insurance effective that evening and they had an hour to pack up belongings and leave. Since then, she has done everything she could to apply for jobs and supplemental help for her child, but her son's expensive medications were no longer covered. The Deacons stepped in to help out by offering to pay for the medication—enough, it turns out, for two months until hopefully, she gets back on her feet. She was grateful for the kindness and understanding of people she has never met and may never meet, knowing her son's medication will be covered and she can focus on other things that are important as well.

Snowstorms can come up unexpectedly. So can kindness. Each has a beauty and power of all its own. Through the gifts of compassion and community we can help bring kindness and beauty into the world one act at a time and make a powerful difference. To all of you who responded to our recent request for the Deacon's Fund, “thank you” for your acts of kindness. Know that you have and continue to make a difference.

With gratitude,

Karen

The Rev. Dr. David Holyan, Pastor

Rev. Holyan will return from Medical leave on February 17. Please continue to keep him in prayer during the remainder of his recovery time.
February 3, 2019 - 4th Sunday after Epiphany
Scriptures: Jeremiah1:4-10 and Luke 4:21-30
In Jeremiah 1:4-10 we learn that God knows us and claims us even before we’re born. In Luke 4:21-30, it seems no one really knows Jesus and in fact, are so unhappy with who he is that they try to kill him. How do we know ourselves? How do we live our life of faith with confidence and courage?

February 10, 2019 - 5th Sunday after Epiphany
The Rev. Dr. Tom Glenn, Parish Associate, will be with us on this Sunday. He is currently teaching in San Francisco and unable to provide information about the service at this time.

February 17, 2019 - 6th Sunday after Epiphany
Sermon: “The Blessings of Trust” - The Rev. David Dr. Holyan
This passage from Jeremiah is one of my favorite life verses, 17:5-10. The contrast between those who trust in their own strength and those who trust in the Lord is stark. Those who trust in their own strength are cursed, while those who open to the goodness of God are blessed. We'll explore this passage and how it invites us to be generous and loving to ourselves and our neighbors.

February 24, 2019, 7th Sunday after Epiphany
Sermon: “Do Unto Others” - The Rev. Dr. David Holyan
In this passage from the Gospel of Luke we get the golden rule: Do to others as you would have them do to you. We are invited to love our enemies and to give our possessions to ungrateful strangers. We are to embody the gracious love of God for all people, not just the ones we like. Even when we find ourselves under attack, we are invited to see the broken human before us and offer them the love God has offered us in our brokenness.

From the Director of Music Ministries
This is one of those years that Easter occurs later than usual – April 21st. Ash Wednesday is March 6th, which means that February is a full month in between the conclusion of the Christmas holidays and the beginning of Lent.

Just as the seasons in nature guide and direct us throughout the year, the church seasons guide us on our liturgical path. Following Epiphany, we continue to celebrate the coming of the Light, Jesus Christ, into our midst. We hear about the beginnings of his earthly ministry and sing songs of our faith during this time before Lent.

May this season of Epiphanytide, or Ordinary Time, be a place of blessing and grace. Allow this season to inspire your prayer and fill your hearts in worship as we walk this path with Christ, the Light of the world.

Faithfully yours,
Bill

Youth Ministry

Senior High Youth

We are already starting to lay out plans for the Work Camp Auction (April 14th) but have some fun planned for February! Our SHF students will turn their focus to planning and leading the 9:05 Arise! Worship Service on Sunday, February 23rd!

Confirmation

The Confirmation Class will be finishing up their time together at the end of this month and will be joining the church as full members on Sunday, March 3rd.

Students will be having a lock-in in the middle of the month to have fun together, but mostly to craft their Class Creed, presented to the congregation in March.

Family Events - Add to your Calendar Now!

February 10 - Game DAY!

Join us for snow cones, snacks and games galore! We will have 9 Square, Gaga Ball and a lot of table games - and we hope you will bring your favorite game(s) too!

We are going for this one early - 3:00-5:00! There is no cost for this event.

Defining Family

When it comes to our events called “family” it just means that they are family-friendly! The movie for Movie Night is rated less than PG-13, but everything is open to all. The Game Day is meant to be a casual time of fellowship together. We hope you will join us, even if you do not have children!

Work Camp Auction - April 14th!

Our Senior High Fellowship students will be heading to the Washington, DC region, for Work Camp in July for two weeks of work in and around the city. We are slated to take about 35 students on the trip this summer!

Our fundraising for this mission experience is focused on the Work Camp Auction, which includes a sit down dinner, silent auction and live dessert auction. Our students will start planning things soon. We hope that you will put April 14th on your calendar NOW!

If you have new or gently used items to donate for the silent auction, go ahead and bring them! We are most in need of an experience (tickets) or a vacation spot for a few days. More on that next month, but we do have space now to gather items.

Work Camp Anniversary Celebration!

Work Camp, our annual youth mission trip, began in the summer of 1969. We are calling on all former Work Campers to check in, even if you cannot attend on May 31-June 2, 2019.

We will be keeping a page on the website up with information. You can also start sending photos along to Rob in the office as soon as you start to find them - this will hopefully be the best slideshow of all!

SUNDAY MORNING CLASSES

CHRISTIAN CONCERNS LECTURE SERIES: 9:00a.m. in Room 009
February 3, 10, 17 and 24: Dr Cathleen Fleck, returns to share a series with us exploring the changes in and role of the human form as portrayed in Medieval and Renaissance art. Dr. Fleck is Associate Professor in the Fire and Performing Arts department and Art History Program Director at Saint Louis University.

FIREPLACE ROOM SERIES: 10:00a.m. in Room 030
February 3: Due to the weather related issues on January 13, we are pleased that Amy Stark from Care and Counseling was able to reschedule her planned discussion. The new date is Sunday February 3. In a world filled with social media, instant communication and a 24/7 news cycle, it seems odd that we would find loneliness to be an issue that many young people deal with in their daily lives. Join us for a discussion on this increasingly significant issue that is affecting many of our children, teens and young adults today. Amy will lead this important conversation in the Fireplace Room with the focus on loneliness and depression.
February 10: Loneliness is not only an issue for the young, but also for seniors. As we age, the loss of family and friends, changes in mobility, and retirement, without creating a new routine, can contribute to a sense of loneliness which can also contribute to depression. Elizabeth Sergle, the CFO of Vist-A-Bit with the Visiting Nurses Association, will speak both about the impact of loneliness and about a volunteer program that they have put into place to train people to spend time with seniors providing conversation, connection and community. If you have a loved one who expresses a sense of loneliness or you are seeking a meaningful volunteer role, join us in the Fireplace Room at 10:00a.m. on February 10 to hear more about this important topic.
February 17: NO CLASS

BIBLE STUDY & BOOK GROUPS

Monday Evening Bible Study: This Bible Study group meets on Monday evenings at 7:00p.m. in the Fireplace Room. Please join us as we continue our study on Luke. New members are welcome, just let Dr. Blanchard know so that she can order you a book at kblanchard@kirkwoodpres.org.

Fourth Wednesday Book Group: The book is The Nest, by Cynthia D’Aprix Sweeney. The book is about a family dealing with issues of inheritance and money and the unsettling challenges it creates. We will meet on Wednesday, February 27 at 1:30pm in Room 029 downstairs on the lower level in room 029.

Tuesday Morning Book Group: We will view the movie, Amen, on two Tuesday mornings and share in a discussion. The movie is a docudrama that invites us to reflect on the connections between the church and the Nazis by examining some of the issues that came together allowing for such a devastating episode in history to be carried out. We meet in Fireplace Room on the lower level.

MISSION TRIP PLANNING MEETING, Sunday, March 3, 10:00a.m.
In January, 2017 an F3 tornado tore through southeastern Mississippi, killing four people and causing damage to over 1000 homes along its 31 mile path. Many of the homeowners had inadequate insurance, or none at all; these are the people we’ll be helping during our mission trip to Hattiesburg, April 7-13. Volunteers are needed, and no experience is necessary. Mission trips are one of the best ways to get to know your fellow church members, and help others at the same time. Please join mission trip leaders Linda Jarrett, Liz McCane and Georgina Sikorski on Sunday, March 3 at 10:00a.m. for an informational meeting. If you aren’t able to attend the meeting or have questions about the trip, please contact Liz (lizmccane@gmail.com) at 314-965-2709, Linda (write4you@sbcglobal.net) at 314-956-8386, or Georgina (gwsikorski@gmail.com) at 678-644-2782.

Barbecue-To-Go Fundraiser, March 10, 2019
Wouldn’t it be great if someone else prepared a yummy barbecue meal for you and your family/friends? Well, guess what. Your wish is our command. Our Mission team is planning to travel to Hattiesburg, Mississippi, from April 7-14, 2019 to help flood survivors rebuild their homes. To support the mission trip, we are, once again, having a delicious barbecue-to-go fundraiser. With the guidance and support of Craig Wilde, chef extraordinaire, we will be preparing a delicious assortment of barbecue items including pulled pork, smoked beef brisket and chicken, barbecued ribs, sides, and brownies for dessert.
Select the items you want from the order form (forms located at the table next to Bridge Bread in the Gathering Space) and place your order ahead of time. Order forms will be available February 17, 2019. We are requesting that all orders be placed by March 3. Meals will be ready for pick up from 9 AM-12:30 PM on March 10. Thank you for your support and enjoy your barbecue-to-go!

LEARN MORE ABOUT GARDENING & LOCAL SUSTAINABLE FARMS
Here’s an opportunity for those at our church who are gardeners or interested in learning more about the local food movement. The Slow Food STL organization is having their annual Pancake Breakfast on Saturday, February 2 here at First Pres in Fellowship Hall.
Gather around the table for a hearty breakfast of tasty ingredients sourced from local, sustainable farms and purveyors who exemplify Slow Food’s mission of Good, Clean and Fair Food for All. Enjoy a meal with local sausage, eggs, grits, oatmeal, and a vegan option, too. Tickets are available at slowfoodstl.org/calendar for 9:00a.m. and 10:00a.m. seatings.
If you have any questions or would like more information, member Julie Holley, one of the group's organizers, can be reached at 314-800-5405 or at holleyjaw@gmail.com.

Each member is asked to share in paying their Per Capita apportionment, $31.00 per member in 2019. This breaks down to $19.20 for Presbytery, $2.85 for Synod and $8.95 for GA. You may pay your Per Capita by using the Per Capita envelope in your 2019 box of offering envelopes or by using one from the pews. Your payment should be earmarked “Per Capita”. Thank you from First Pres Kirkwood.
