Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (The people joining)

God of grace and welcome, you invite all people into your loving presence. You long for us, your people, to be an open and welcoming community of faith. Forgive us for all the ways we shut people out. Forgive us for turning our backs to the needs of our neighbors. Forgive us our sin. Empower us to repent, to turn toward the goodness of your love, and welcome all people in the name of your son Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.

“Lord, Here I Am”                     text: Fannie Crosby
music: John Ness Beck

Master, Thou callest, I gladly obey; only direct me, and I’ll find the way.
Teach me the mission appointed for me, what is my labor, and where it shall be.
Master, Thou callest, and this I reply, “Ready and willing, Lord, here am I.”
Willing, my Savior, to take up the cross; willing to suffer reproaches and loss.
Willing to follow, if Thou will but lead; only support me with grace in my need.
Master, Thou callest, and this I reply, “Ready and willing, Lord, here am I.”
Living or dying, I still would be Thine, yet I am mortal while Thou art divine.
Pardon, whenever I turn from the right; pity, and bring me again to the light.
Master, Thou callest, and this I reply, “Ready and willing, Lord, here am I.”

Second Reading                      Matthew 10:40-42           Pew Bible, N.T., pg. 11

Leader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offertory Sentences
Offertory Solo

“Hear My Cry, O God”
Cesar Franck

Hear my cry, O God, attend unto my prayer. From the end of the earth will I cry unto Thee.
When my heart is overwhelmed, lead me to the Rock that is higher than I.
For Thou hast been a shelter for me and a strong tower from the enemy.
When I cry unto God then shall my enemies turn back.
This I know, for God is for me. In God will I praise His word, in God I have put my trust.
Let my mouth be filled with praise, and with Thy honor all the day. Amen.

307 God of Grace and God of Glory

1 God of grace and God of glory, on thy people
2 Lo! the hosts of evil round us scorn thy Christ, as-
3 Cure thy children's warring madness; bend our pride to 4 Save us from weak resignation to the evils

pour thy power; crown thine ancient church's story; bring its sail his ways! From the fears that long have bound us free our thy control; shame our wanton, selfish gladness, rich in we deplore. Let the gift of thy salvation be our bud to glorious flower. Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, hearts to faith and praise. Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, things and poor in soul. Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, glory evermore. Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, for the facing of this hour, for the facing of this hour. for the living of these days, for the living of these days. lest we miss thy kingdom's goal, lest we miss thy kingdom's goal. serving thee whom we adore, serving thee whom we adore.

This stirring hymn used at the opening of Riverside Church in New York in 1930 was penned by its well-known and influential pastor, and it has gained a firm place in English-language hymnals around the world. The Welsh tune name honors the Rhondda Valley in Glamorganshire.

Great Is Thy Faithfulness

1 *Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father;
   there is no shadow of turning with thee.
   Thou changest not; thy compassions they fail not.
   As thou hast been thou forever wilt be.

2 Summer and winter, and spring-time and harvest,
   sun, moon, and stars in their courses above
   join with all nature in manifold witness to thy great faithfulness, mercy, and love.

3 Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth,
   thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide,
   blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

*Or "Great is thy faithfulness, O God, Creator."

Written as a meditation on Lamentations 3:22-23, this text is one of the few hymns among the 1200 poems by this Methodist writer and pastor that has gained much currency. The tune that appears here was composed especially for these words, and the pairing has proved enduring.
Refrain

Great is thy faithfulness! Great is thy faithfulness!
오 신실하신주 오신실하신주

Morning by morning, new mercies I see.
날마다자비를배주시며

All I have needed thy hand hath provided.
일용할모든것내려주시니

Great is thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!

In Christ Called to Baptize

1 In Christ called to baptize, we witness to grace
2 In Christ called to banquet, one table we share,
3 In Christ called to witness, by grace we will preach
4 Unite us, anoint us, O Spirit of love,

and gather a people from each land and race.
a haven of welcome, a circle of care.
the life-giving gospel; God’s love we will teach.
for you are within us, around us, above.

In deep, flowing waters, we share in Christ’s death,
Although we are many, we share in one bread.
By grace may our living give proof to our praise
Equip us for service with gifts you bestow.

then, rising to new life, give thanks with each breath.
One cup of thanks-giving proclaims Christ, our head.
in costly compassion reflecting Christ’s ways.
In Christ is our calling. In Christ may we grow.

Written for use at the 1997 meeting of the Lutheran World Federation, this text about Christian vocation and ministry organizes the first three stanzas around verbs: baptize, banquet, witness. The final stanza is a prayer for the Spirit’s gifts to empower all these callings.
